W&M NEWS AND NOTES

• The Tribe and Phoenix competed against a fair share of similar non-conference opponents. Both teams played Radford, Maryland, High Point and Campbell. In 10 games, the W&M was able to finish with a 6-4 record, including a season sweep of Maryland. On the other hand, the Phoenix inked out a 3-2 mark with its losses occurring against High Point and Maryland.

• The Tribe lineup will look to generate offense against one of the best pitching staff's in the CAA. The Phoenix boasts the third-best ERA (3.30), while leading the association in opposing batting average (.221) and strike outs (527). Friday starter Kyle Brnovich is second in the nation behind 132 K's.

• W&M is coming off one of its best offensive showcases at Virginia Tech on Tuesday. The Tribe tied its season-high 15 hits and homered twice. The top of the lineup imposed its will as the first five batters all tallied multiple hits. However, it's the seventh time the Tribe took a loss despite outhitting an opponent.

• After producing the most effective start of his career, there is strong chance junior Nick Butts will receive more action of the bullpen in the final series of 2018. Butts hurled a career-high five scoreless innings of one-hit ball. He worked a pair of three up, three down frames and allowed just two base runners to reach scoring position.

• Sophomore Brandon Raquet has provided a significant amount of power to the Tribe lineup over the last nine games. The outfielder crushed at least on extra base hit in seven of the contests, including four home runs and five doubles. His efforts resulted in a slugging percentage of .718 during the period.

• Junior Colin Lipke and sophomore Patrick Ryan are another pair of players that have contributed heavily toward the end of the season. Similar to Raquet, Lipke is on a hot streak during the previous nine outings. Lipke is batting .387 (12-for-31) with two doubles, three home runs and an RBI. In his last seven appearances, Ryan owns a .333 (7-for-21) hitting rate, adding two doubles and two RBI.

• With 23 games decided by one run, W&M has competed in its most tight games in program history. However, the Tribe struggles to come out victorious in close games, holding a 7-16 record in one-run decisions. The second-most one-run games occurred in 2012 with 20.

• Rookie Matt McDermott is sixth in program history with 10 sacrifice hits. The second baseman has started in every game and leads the team with three triples. He recently matched his season-high three RBI against Delaware (5/11). McDermott is also one of three players to generate a double-digit on-base streak this year.

• Senior Charlie Fletcher improved his career record in appearances to 104 after receiving the ball on Tuesday night. The Ashburn, Va., native ranks fourth among other active career leaders and is just one appearance away from leaping to third in the CAA record books. Fletcher tops the conference with 27 games in relief this year.

• Senior Ryan Hall replaced Greg Sexton '07 as the school's new all-time leader in at bats (833). He also holds the highest all-time fielding percentage (.991), while ranking top ten in games started (2nd), hits (7th), doubles (4th), sacrifice flies (t-5th), walks (6th), and runs scored (t-9th).

• The Tribe has four former players competing at the professional level, three of them were drafted last year. After helping the rookie level Elizabethton Twins capture a league title last summer, Nick Brown '17 now pitches for the Cedar Rapids Kernels (Parent Club: Minnesota Twins). Third round draft pick Nick Raquet hurls for the Hagerstown Suns (Parent Club: Washington Nationals), while fifth rounder Cullen Large plays with the Lansing Lugnuts (Parent Club: Toronto Blue Jays). Ryan Hissey, also a member of the Toronto Blue Jays, was recently assigned to the Double-A New Hampshire Fisher Cats.

Brian Casey - Assistant Coach (sixth season)
Pat McKenna - Assistant Coach (second season)
Chad Marshall - Volunteer Assts. (second season)

Brian Murphy was named head coach of the Tribe baseball program on Dec. 3, 2013, and enters his fifth season as the Tribe's head coach. It will be his sixth season in Williamsburg, after spending one season as the Tribe's top assistant coach.

The former one-year assistant guided the Green and Gold to three 30-plus win seasons, a NCAA Regional Final appearances and a Colonial Athletic Association Tournament bid each season in his first four years as the skipper. Before his promotion, Murphy helped the Tribe earn its first-ever NCAA Tournament at-large bid and win its first regional games in school history on the strength of a record-setting 39-win season in 2013. He made a seamless transition to head coach the following year as W&M secured its first-ever regular season conference title, culminating in CAA Coach of the Year honors. A couple seasons later, W&M captured its first CAA tournament championship since 2001 en route to reaching the NCAA Regional Final for the second time in a four-year span.

In 2017, a third-place finish in the CAA standings allowed W&M to make its fifth consecutive postseason appearance, which is a program-best since qualifying started for the CAA Baseball Tournament. Murphy secured his 100th career victory mid-way through the season after the Tribe edged conference rival UNCW, 10-9, on March 26. At the end of the regular season, the Green and Gold landed five players on the all-conference teams, highlighted by junior Cullen Large receiving All-CAA First Team accolades. Senior Ryder Miconi, who was tabbed All-CAA Third Team, continued to excel in the classroom as he repeated as CAA Scholar Athlete of the Year. In addition, All-CAA second teamer Brandon Raquet was named to Collegiate Baseball's Freshman All-American Team. Murphy also helped produced a draft class of at least three W&M players for the fifth time in program history. Redshirt sophomore Nick Raquet became the third-highest all-time MLB draft pick by getting selected in the third round by the Washington Nationals. Large was chosen in the fifth round by the Toronto Blue Jays and senior Nick Brown was picked by the Minnesota Twins in the 32nd round. It was the second time in program history that two players were taken inside the first five rounds of the MLB Draft.

The 2016 season will go down as one of the most memorable seasons in program history. Down 8-1 in what looked like its final at-bat of the season, the Tribe answered with seven runs in the ninth and sparked a two-week run for the ages. Following a 27-hour rain delay, W&M went on to win the first CAA Championship game in 12 innings, before senior Josh Smith's grand-slam homer in the bottom of the eighth inning lifted them to the CAA Tournament crown and automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament. In the NCAA Regional, the Tribe, which fell in its first game, knocked out Bryant and defending national champion Virginia on its way to its second Regional Final in four seasons. When all was said and done the Green and Gold won six elimination games against Northeastern, College of Charleston, UNCW (twice), Bryant, and Virginia. For his efforts, Murphy was named VaSID Coach of the Year. Individually, he helped lead six Tribe players to all-conference awards, including senior Charley Gould, junior Ryder Miconi, and sophomore Ryan Hall, who were named to the second team. Miconi was rewarded for his hard work in the classroom by being named the CAA Scholar Athlete of the Year. Gould became the 35th player in school history to be drafted when the Oakland Athletics drafted him in the 26th round. It was the fifth straight season that the Tribe had a player selected in the MLB Draft.

Throughout his stint in the W&M dugout, Murphy has mentored a total of nine MLB Draft picks, two national award semifinalists and 22 all-conference players. Michael Katz (2012-14), who garnered multiple All-American honors, was tabbed a Golden Spikes Award semifinalist in 2014. Additionally, Katz and Charley Gould (2013-16) were just two of three players in program history to become Dick Howser Trophy semifinalists, representing W&M on the prestigious list in back-to-back years ('14 & '15). Murphy also helped develop a quartet of record-setting athletes. Under his watch, three pitching records were shattered as John Farrell (2010-13) set a new single-season wins standard (11), Jason Inghram (2012-15) replaced the school's all-time wins mark (26) and Joseph Gaouette (2013-16) broke the career saves record (18). Furthermore, Katz eclipsed the single-season RBI ledger (75).

The Easton Mass. native, who enters his sixth season with the Tribe baseball program, after spending three-seasons at Ivy League school Brown.

While at Brown, Murphy served as the Bears recruiting coordinator and hitting coach. During his three-year tenure in Providence, R.I., Murphy mentored 10 All-Ivy League selections.

Prior to his time with the Bears, Murphy was an assistant at Bryant University in Smithfield, R.I., (2006-09) where he was the recruiting director for the Bulldogs. His on the field responsibilities at Bryant included overseeing the catchers, outfielders and batting. In 2008, he was a member of a Bulldog squad that captured the Northeast-10 Championship. His tenure at Bryant was highlighted by 132 victories, two NCAA Tournament Regional final appearances and a school-record 42 wins in 2008. At the plate, Bryant improved every season in batting average and runs per game under Murphy's tutelage.

In 2004 and 2005, Murphy served as an assistant at Wheaton College in Norton, Ma. While coaching at Wheaton, Murphy's coaching engagement centered on the Lyons' hitting approach and catchers. The Lyons captured two New England Women's and Men's Athletic Conference (NEWMAC) titles and made it all the way to the 2005 NCAA New England Regional finals during Murphy's two seasons.

Murphy has summer coaching experience in the Cape Cod League and the Northwoods League. Murphy served as the hitting coach for the CCBL's Hyannis Mets during the summers of 2005 and 2006. In 2008, he was the Head Coach of the Battle Creek (MI) Bombers of the Northwoods League.

He played collegiately at Merrimack College in North Andover, Mass., where he was the team captain in 2003. Murphy earned a degree in business management from Merrimack in 2003 and a Master's Degree in Sports Management from California University of Pennsylvania in 2009.

Murphy resides in Williamsburg with his wife, Karen, son, Connor, and daughter Maggie.
