RAIDERS

The Game

After playing three consecutive road games to begin the season, William & Mary will host No. 24/23 Colgate for its home opener at Zable Stadium on Saturday at 6 p.m. The contest will be televised live on Cox YurView Virginia. W&M is off to a 1-2 start this season and is coming off back-to-back losses against nationally ranked opponents in Virginia Tech and James Madison. The Tribe has been successful creating turnovers and has forced six through three games after totaling 10 all of last season. Colgate owns a 3-0 record, which includes a win at New Hampshire. The Raiders lead the nation in scoring defense (6.7).

The Series

Saturday's game against Colgate will mark W&M's first matchup with the Raiders since 1992, which the Tribe won, 44-26, in Hamilton, N.Y. W&M controls the all-time series, 6-3, and has won the last three meetings. Additionally, the Tribe owns a 4-2 advantage in games played in Williamsburg.

The Coaches

- William & Mary: Jimmye Laycock (W&M '70) owns a career record of 246-191-2 and is in his 39th season at the helm of the Tribe. His 246 wins rank second nationally among all active Division-I coaches, while his 109 conference victories rank second all-time in the CAA. Additionally, no active Division I head coach has been with his respective program longer than Laycock.
- Colgate: Dan Hunt (Springfield '92) is in his fifth season at CU and owns a 29-21 record with the Raiders.

The Program

- William & Mary's all-time record stands at 574-567-41 in 125 seasons.
- During Laycock's tenure, W&M has won five conference titles, advanced to the NCAA playoffs 10 times and posted 24 winning seasons. W&M has advanced to the NCAA FCS semifinals twice - 2004, 2009.
- W&M has finished the season ranked among the top 10 nationally twice since 2009 and ranked as high as No. 1 during the 2010 campaign.
- Laycock has coached 45 All-Americans (125 total honors), while 40 W&M players have signed NFL contracts during his tenure.

Celebrating 125 Years of W&M Football

The 2018 season marks the 125th year of football at William & Mary.

Game Notes

Tribe by the Numbers

Loss by W&M in its last 34 games against non-conference FCS foes during the regular season.

Undefeated regular-season home records posted by W&M since 2009 (2009, 2010, 2015).

Consecutive home-opening wins for W&M entering Saturday's matchup against Colgate. Additionally, the Tribe has won nine of its last 10 home openers.

Turnovers forced by W&M through three games this season after recording 10 during the entire 2017 campaign.

8

Nationally ranked teams on W&M's 2018 schedule.

26

Seasons since W&M and Colgate last met. The Tribe won that meeting, 44-26, on Nov. 7, 1992 in Williamsburg.

2003

The last time W&M played its home opener on a date later than Sept. 29.

William & Mary/Colgate Notes

A Tribe Win vs. Colgate Would ...

- Be W&M's 34th win in its last 35 games against a non-conference FCS opponent during the regular season; additionally, it would improve W&M's record overall vs. FCS non-conference teams to 37-2 dating back through the 2002 season
- Improve W&M's record in home openers during the Laycock Era to 29-10; additionally, it would be W&M's sixth-consecutive home-opening win and improve its record to 10-1 in such contests during the last 11 seasons
- Improve W&M's record against Patriot League teams to 25-9
- Improve W&M's record vs. Patriot League teams to 2-0 this season (won at Bucknell, 14-7 on Sept. 1)
- Improve W&M's all-time record vs. Colgate to 7-3
- Improve W&M's all-time record vs. Colgate in Williamsburg to 5-2
- Extend W&M's winning streak vs. Colgate to four games
- Mark W&M's seventh win in its last eight meetings vs. Colgate
- Be head coach Jimmye Laycock's 247th career win - his all-time record is 246-191-2; he currently ranks as the second-winningest active D-I head coach and trails only Al Bagnoli (Columbia), who has 254 career wins
- Be the 575th win the College's history - the program's all-time record stands at 574-567-41 and is in its 125th season of football

Series History

Saturday's game against Colgate will mark W&M's first matchup with the Raiders since 1992, which the Tribe won, 44-26, in Hamilton, N.Y.

W&M controls the all-time series, 6-3, and has won the last three meetings. Additionally, the Tribe owns a 4-2 advantage in games played in Williamsburg.

Colgate won the first two matchups (1973, 1975), but the Tribe has won six of the last seven contests.

W&M has scored at least 42 points in four of the nine meetings.

W&M vs. the Patriot League

W&M boasts a 24-9 all-time record against teams currently in the Patriot League. Nearly a third of those contests have come against Lehigh, as the Tribe owns an 8-1 mark versus the Mountain Hawks. Fordham is the lone Patriot League team W&M is yet to play.

The Tribe opened its 2018 slate at Bucknell on Sept. 1 and earned a 14-7 victory.

Team Notes

Home Openers

William & Mary Head Coach Jimmye Laycock has posted a 28-10 record in home openers.

Additionally, the Tribe has won nine of its last 10 home openers, winning by an average margin of 23.1 points in the victories (+208).

Winning at Zable Stadium

Despite going 1-4 at home last season, W&M has posted a 19-9 record at Zable Stadium since the start of the 2013 season, which represents a 67.9 winning percentage.

W&M's recent undefeated regular-season home records came in 2015, 2010, 2009 & 2004.

Challenging Slate

In addition to opening its slate with three consecutive road games, W&M's schedule includes eight nationally ranked teams.

Late Home Opener

Because Hurricane Florence forced the cancelation of W&M's home opener against Elon on Sept. 15, Saturday's game against Colgate will mark the first time since 2005 that the Tribe has not played a home contest until its fourth opponent.

Additionally, it will mark the program's latest home opener on the calendar since 2003 when it began its home slate on Oct. 11 against UMass.

The William & Mary football program boasts some of the finest facilities at the FCS level, as the $28 million Zable Stadium renovation was completed in 2016 and sits adjacent to the team's $11 million Jimmye Laycock Football Center. The recent stadium renovation also includes the addition of a new state-of-the-art playing surface – FieldTurf Revolution 360.

Success in September

W&M has played well during the month of September in recent years and has posted a 26-13 mark since 2009.

During the past five seasons, the Tribe has registered a 14-7 mark during the month, which includes a 14-3 record against FCS foes.

Underclassmen to Play Big Role

W&M's depth chart currently features 23 underclassmen, while the Tribe's entire roster includes just six seniors.

True Freshmen

Three true freshmen have played this season - offensive lineman Colby Sorsdal, offensive lineman Marcus Crowell and defensive tackle Zyquan Bessant.

Dating back through 2014, 16 true freshmen have played for the Tribe (2017 - 5; 2016 - 4; 2014 - 4).

Importance of Getting Ahead

Dating back to the start of the 2013 season, W&M is 20-10 in games in which it scores first. Conversely, it is 11-21 when the opponent scores first.

Importance of Leading at Halftime

Dating back to the 2014 season, the Tribe has won 14 of its last 16 games when leading at halftime. The only setbacks have come against Towson (2016, 2017).

Holding on to Leads

Dating back to the start of the 2013 season, W&M owns a 28-3 record when leading after three quarters.

The three losses came against Delaware, 2015; JMU, 2014; Villanova, 2013.

Wide Margins

W&M owns an impressive average margin of victory dating back through 2014, while all but five of its last 24 victories during that span have come by double-digit margins.

2018 - 7.0
2017 - 17.5
2016 - 13.6
2015 - 17.6
2014 - 15.7

Limiting Penalties

W&M has ranked among the country's top 10 least penalized teams seven straight years.

Last season, the Tribe ranked third nationally in fewest penalties per game (3.82) and fewest penalty yards per game (34.91).

W&M currently ranks 42nd in fewest penalties per game (6.0) and 29th in fewest penalty yards per game (44.7).

The chart below indicates those national rankings during the last seven seasons.

National Ranking (FCS)

Year	Fewest Pen./Gm	Fewest Pen. Yds/Gm
2017	3rd (3.8)	3rd (34.9)
2016	9th (4.5)	5th (39.9)
2015	5th (4.3)	4th (37.5)
2014	7th (4.7)	5th (40.2)
2013	5th (4.1)	3rd (32.2)
2012	8th (4.2)	8th (38.5)
2011	2nd (3.6)	2nd (30.0)

With 246 career victories, head coach Jimmie Laycock ranks as the second-winningest active D-I head coach and trails only Al Bagnoli (Columbia), who has 254.

One Tribe, One Family

The W&M athletic department's unofficial slogan - "One Tribe, One Family" - is especially true for the Tribe football team, as the roster features a pair of brother tandems - Josh/Justin Dulaney and Collin/Corey Parker.

Historical Success in Close Games

Since taking over the W&M football program in 1980, head coach Jimmie Laycock's squads have played in 69 games decided by three or fewer points. W&M has experienced success in those contests, totaling an impressive 37-30-2 record.

Additionally, the Tribe has posted a 7-4 record in overtime games.

#LaycockLegacy

Prior to the start of preseason camp, legendary head coach Jimmie Laycock announced the 2018 campaign would be his final season on the Tribe sidelines.

Currently in his 39th season at W&M, Laycock is the nation's longest-tenured Division I head football coach and ranks second in career wins among all active DI coaches with 246 victories.

Far and away W&M's all-time leader in career wins, Laycock's remarkable career accomplishments include 10 NCAA Playoff appearances, five conference titles and 24 winning seasons. Additionally, he guided W&M to the NCAA Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) semifinals twice - 2004 and 2009 - and finished a season with a national ranking 13 different times.

Individual accomplishments under Laycock have been plentiful, as he has helped 45 players earn 125 All-America honors at W&M, while 40 former Tribe players have gone on to sign NFL contracts since he took the helm in 1980.

Laycock's connection with the NFL doesn't end there, as his remarkable influence is also evident in his impressive and vast coaching tree that extends into the highest levels of football. Two of his former players are currently head coaches in the NFL - Mike Tomlin '95 (Pittsburgh Steelers) and Sean McDermott '98 (Buffalo Bills). Laycock's impressive coaching tree also includes current Atlanta Falcons head coach Dan Quinn, who served as an assistant on W&M's staff in 1994.

W&M a Special Place for Special Teams

A Tribe standout has earned the CAA Special Teams Player of the Year honor during six of the last eight seasons - Jonathan Grimes (2010, 2011), B.W. Webb (2012), Tre McBride (2013), John Carpenter (2014) and DeVonte Dedmon (2015).

Captains

The Tribe is led by a trio of senior captains this season - junior linebacker Nate Atkins, senior cornerback Raeshawn Smith and senior wide receiver Jack Armstrong. Atkins will have the opportunity to become just the 12th player in the program's long and storied history to be selected as a two-time team captain if he garners the distinction again next season.

Tribe in the NFL

The Tribe was well represented in NFL training camps this summer, as seven former players were on active rosters - Chris Durant (Chargers), Connor Hilland (Dolphins), DeAndre Houston Carson (Bears), Tre McBride (Jets), Luke Rhodes (Colts), B.W. Webb (Giants) and Jerry Ugokwe (Buccaneers).

Additionally, a pair of former Tribe players are currently serving as NFL head coaches - Mike Tomlin '95 (Pittsburgh Steelers, head coach) and Sean McDermott '98 (Buffalo Bills). Atlanta Falcons head coach Dan Quinn also has W&M ties, as he was an assistant on the Tribe's staff in 1994.

Also noteworthy is a pair of former W&M head coaches who went on to have extraordinary careers - Marv Levy and Lou Holtz. Levy served as W&M's head coach from 1964-68 and was followed by Holtz from 1969-71.

Tribe NFL Draft Picks

When All-American defensive back DeAndre Houston Carson was selected by the Chicago Bears in the sixth round of the 2016 NFL Draft, he became the sixth Tribe player drafted since 2009.

Below are a few notes about W&M's six NFL Draft picks since 2009.

- Leads the CAA and ranks second in the FCS, behind only Montana (7)

- Ranks third in the state of Virginia (behind only Virginia Tech and Virginia)

- Is more than ACC member Duke (4)

Bouncing Back

Under head coach Jimmye Laycock, W&M has historically bounced back from seasons in which it failed to post a winning record (W&M was 2-9 last season), as the Tribe has registered consecutive losing seasons just four times during the past 36 years.

It's A Winner

In his 38 full seasons at W&M, head coach Jimmye Laycock has secured 24 winning seasons.

The achievement is remarkable when considering the program had just seven winning seasons in the previous 30 years (1950 - 1979) prior to his taking control of the program for the 1980 season.

Chesapeake Bank Jimmye Laycock Radio Show

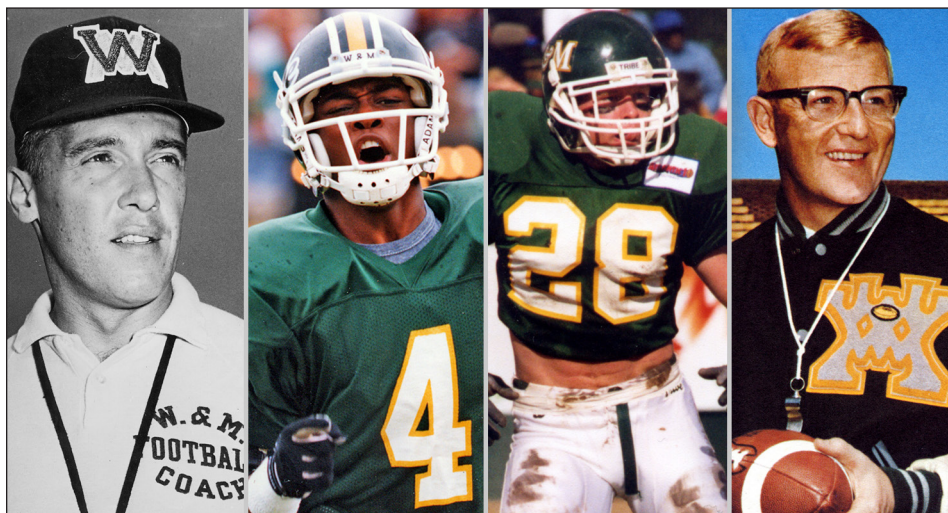

The Chesapeake Bank Jimmye Laycock Show will broadcast live at Paul's Deli on the Tribe's flagship stations 92.3 FM The Tide and 107.9 Bach FM each Tuesday this season. The show will begin on-site at 6:30 p.m. with the live interview airing from 7 - 7:30 p.m.

Longtime Tribe play-by-play announcer Jay Colley will host the broadcast from Paul's Deli, located at 761 Scotland St.

Fans unable to pick up the broadcast locally can listen online at TribeAthletics.com.

W&M's six NFL Draft picks since 2009 leads the CAA and ranks second among all FCS programs. Additionally, it ranks behind only Virginia and Virginia Tech in the state of Virginia.

Mike Tomlin, Sean McDermott, Marv Levy and Lou Holtz all have ties to W&M. Tomlin (1990-94), a wide receiver, and McDermott (1993-97), a safety, are both former team captains, while Levy (1964-68) and Holtz (1969-71) both served as head coaches.

Team Offensive Notes

Dedmon is Back

After suffering a season-ending injury in the opener at Virginia last fall, standout wide receiver DeVonte Dedmon made an immediate impact through two games this season.

In addition posting a pair of long touchdown catches, he is averaging 83.3 yards per game and 20.8 yards per catch.

Dedmon recorded a 75-yard touchdown catch at Bucknell and a 59-yard score at Virginia Tech.

A two-time All-CAA selection and former CAA Special Teams Player of the Year, Dedmon is one of the nation's most talented and electric playmakers.

Quick Strike Offense

Three of W&M's four touchdown drives this season have lasted less than 1:30.

Big Plays Through the Air

Although W&M has posted just one run of at least 15 yards this season, it has found success with big plays through the air and recorded four passing plays longer than 40 yards - including two longer than 70 yards.

True Freshman on the OL

W&M has played two true freshman on the offensive line this season - Colby Sorsdal and Marcus Crowell. The duo joins Cody Morris (2003) as the only W&M true freshmen offensive linemen to play dating back through 1983.

Fourth Down Conversions

W&M has converted on four of its seven fourth down attempts this season.

Ground Game Production is Key

Since 2011, W&M's ability to run the ball well has been indicative of its overall success. The Tribe has averaged 194.6 rushing yards per game in its 38 wins (7,395) rushing yards), while it has averaged just 128.3 yards per game on the ground in its 45 losses (5,772 rushing yards).

Since joining the league in 1993, W&M has rushed for at least 200 yards 76 times and posted a 71-5 record in those contests.

Additionally, W&M is 25-4 when out-rushing the opposition since 2013.

Stat to Watch

Dating back through the 2011 season, W&M has struggled to win games in which it has thrown at least 30 passes and owns a 8-21 mark in such contests.

Team Defensive Notes

A Closer Look

Although W&M allowed 51 points in last week's CAA opener at No. 2 James Madison, five of the Dukes' seven scoring drives covered no more than 34 total yards.

Forcing Turnovers

After forcing just 10 turnovers all of last season, W&M has recorded six turnovers through the first three games - four fumbles and two interceptions.

Perfect on Fourth Downs

W&M's defense has not allowed a fourth down conversion this season (0-2).

Tough Against the Pass

Dating back to last season, W&M has held two of its last five opponents to fewer than 150 passing yards.

Just One Senior

Although W&M's defense features seven returning starters - including an eighth with significant starting experience - the Tribe's two deep includes just one senior (cornerback Raeshawn Smith).

Shutting Down the Pass

Since the start of the 2007 season, a span of 130 games, the Tribe has allowed more than 300 passing yards just eight times - New Hampshire (2008, 2011, 2017), Delaware (2009), Hampton (2014), James Madison (2014) and Elon (2015), Duquesne (2015).

Tough to Score Through the Air

Since the start of the 2016 season, a span of 25 games, just five opponents have scored more than one passing touchdown against W&M.

Consistency at MLB

A total of just five players have accounted for 130 of 133 starts at MLB during the past 12 seasons. Junior standout Nate Atkins, who enters his third season as a starter, added his name to that list in 2016.

Defensive/Special Teams Scores

W&M entered the 2018 campaign having recorded a defensive or special teams touchdown during 10 of the last 11 seasons.

Additionally, W&M entered the fall having recorded a pick-six in four of the last five seasons.

Impressive Efforts

Since the start of the 2011 season, W&M has held opponents to less than 300 yards of total offense in 30.9 percent of its games (26 times in 84 games). The Tribe has posted a 21-5 record in those contests, with its only losses coming vs. Towson (2017), at Delaware (2017), vs. Elon (2016) at Maryland (2012) and at Rhode Island (2011).

Dating back to 2016, W&M has held seven of its last 16 opponents to less than 300 yards of total offense.

Tough Defense at Zable

The Tribe defense has been outstanding in home games since the start of the 2009 season and is allowing just 18.0 points per game at Zable Stadium during the stretch.

During the stretch of 49 games (883 points), W&M has posted six shutouts.

W&M owns a 33-16 record at home during that span.

Shutout History

The Tribe has posted 15 shutouts during the Laycock era, with more than a third of them (six) having come since 2009.

Head Coach Jimmye Laycock

William & Mary Head Coach Jimmye Laycock

39th Season

Career Record: 246-191-2 (.563)

Few schools feature a better match at the helm of its program than William & Mary has with Jimmye Laycock, who has worked hand-in-hand with the university's world-class academic tradition to fashion a program that is a point of pride for the campus, alumni and community.

Laycock's legendary career, which includes 39 seasons as W&M's head coach, will conclude at the end of the 2018 campaign as he announced his retirement in August.

Laycock is the nation's longest tenured active Division I head coach and entered the 2018 season ranked second in wins among all active D-I (FCS and FBS) coaches with 245 victories. Laycock also entered the fall ranked second all-time among conference head coaches in league wins (109), while the Tribe has appeared in 19 postseason contests and advanced to the NCAA Semifinals twice under his direction.

The success has led to an era of unprecedented interest and support for his program. In addition to consistent growth in attendance, evidence of this is illustrated by the $28 million Zable Stadium renovation project that was completed in 2016.

On June 21, 2008, the university dedicated the $11 million Jimmye Laycock Football Center with a ceremony that featured more than 500 friends and alumni of the program. While the building carries his name and stands as a strong symbol of what Laycock has meant to the Tribe, it makes a stronger statement about the school's commitment to football and the program's proud tradition. The state-of-the-art center provides W&M with one of the finest facilities in the FCS.

As the architect of what is easily the most extended run of success in W&M's 124-year football history, Laycock has never compromised academic standards for athletic success, as his program earned recognition from the NCAA in each of the first seven seasons the organization has awarded outstanding academic achievement.

When Laycock, a 1970 grad, returned to coach his alma mater prior to the 1980 season, he inherited a program that had won six or more games in a season just four times in the previous 25 years. Few could have predicted that the Tribe would produce nearly five times that amount of seven-win seasons over the next 37 seasons.

Individual accomplishments under Laycock have been plentiful, as he has helped 45 players earn 125 All-America honors at W&M and coached 11 Academic All-Americans. Former quarterback Lang Campbell is one of the most honored, as the 2004 season saw him earn the prestigious Payton Award, given annually to the nation's top offensive player in the FCS ranks, consensus first team All-America honors, as well as the A-10's Offensive Player of the Year and Scholar-Athlete of the Year. With seven all-league recognitions in 2017, the Tribe has produced an astounding 255 all-conference selections since 1993. Former All-American running back Jonathan Grimes accounted for 11 of those honors, as he became the most decorated player in conference history in 2011.

Since 2009, W&M has produced six NFL Draft picks - a figure that leads the CAA and ranks second nationally in the FCS. Additionally, the impressive total ranks third in the state of Virginia (behind only Virginia and Virginia Tech).

During Laycock's tenure, 40 Tribe players have gone on to sign NFL contracts, including seven who were with teams this summer.

In addition to producing a number of professional standouts, a number of Laycock's former players have gone on to accomplish tremendous success as NFL coaches. The most prominent of those is Mike Tomlin ('95), who became the youngest head coach to win a Super Bowl in NFL history when he guided the Pittsburgh Steelers to the title in 2009. Sean McDermott ('98) was hired as the Buffalo Bills head coach in January, 2017, while Alan Williams ('92) is the Detroit Lions defensive backs coach and previously held the title of defensive coordinator for the Minnesota Vikings. Additionally, Michael Clemons ('87) was one of the CFL's most explosive players after a brief stint in the NFL and currently holds the position of Special Advisor for the Toronto Argonauts.

As a 1970 graduate of W&M, Laycock played football under two legends of the game. For three years, he learned the details under the watchful eyes of Marv Levy, the legendary former head coach of the Buffalo Bills. In his last season, Hall of Fame coach Lou Holtz schooled Laycock in the finer aspects of psyche and motivation. As a sophomore, Laycock was a starter in the defensive secondary, but he was soon switched to quarterback where he completed 96 of 218 career passes for 1,366 yards.

Laycock's first full-time coaching position came at The Citadel as the offensive backfield coach under Bobby Ross, who went on to coach the NFL's San Diego Chargers and Detroit Lions. In 1975, Memphis State tabbed Laycock as its quarterback's coach and he helped the Tigers to consecutive 7-4 records.

In 1977, Laycock traveled to Clemson to serve as offensive coordinator for three years. During his tenure, he helped the Tigers fashion records of 8-3-1, 11-1 and 8-4. Clemson played bowl games in each year, defeating Ohio State 17-15 in the 1978 Gator Bowl. At that time, Laycock coached two-time All-ACC performer Steve Fuller, the Tiger quarterback who later played in the NFL, and Dwight Clark, an All-Pro receiver for the San Francisco 49ers.

A native Virginian, Laycock played football, basketball, baseball and golf at Loudoun Valley High School, where he won 12 letters and has since had his number retired and been inducted into the school's Athletics Hall of Fame. Laycock was also inducted into the Hampton Roads Sports Hall of Fame in the fall of 2010.

Laycock is married to Deidre Connelly, a sports psychology consultant at W&M. They have three children: Michael, a Captain in the U.S. Army; Mimi, a 2014 graduate of W&M, teaches for Teach for America in the Baltimore, Md., school system; and James, a recent graduate of Longwood University.

Laycock's daughter Melanie is married to Doug Johnson and is a school administrator in Atlanta, Ga. The couple has two daughters, Grail and Nolan.
