INSIDE THE TRIBE

THE GAME

William & Mary will conclude its non-conference slate when it travels to ECU for a 6 p.m. kickoff this Saturday at Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium. The contest will be broadcast by ESPN3. The matchup will be W&M's second game against an FBS opponent this season, marking the first time the Tribe has squared off against multiple FCS foes in the same year since 1991.

ABOUT THE TRIBE

W&M is off to a 2-1 start this season and is coming off a convincing 38-10 victory against Colgate at Zable Stadium last Saturday. The Tribe has scored at least 30 points in two of its first three games this season, which doubles the number of 30-point performances it posted during the last two seasons combined. Defensively, the Tribe has generated 10 turnovers, which ranks tied for first nationally. Additionally, W&M ranks 14th nationally in sacks per game (2.67) and 17th in TFL per game (8.0). Individually, freshman Bronson Yoder leads the country in kickoff return average (40.4), while sophomore wideout Zach Burdick ranks second in the country with 34.33 yards per catch.

SCOUTING THE PIRATES

ECU is coming off a 42-10 setback at Navy in its last outing and owns a 1-2 record. The Pirates lone win came against Gardner-Webb. Quarterback Holton Ahlers leads the team with three rushing touchdowns, while Darius Pinnix missed the Navy game but has found the end zone twice and is averaging 78.5 rushing yards per game.

ABOUT THE SERIES

Although W&M and ECU have played just once since 1984, Saturday's contest will mark the 18th all-time meeting between the two programs. The lone meeting during the past 26 years came in 2001 when ECU earned a 38-23 victory in Greenville. The Pirates control the all-time series 12-4-1.

W&M's last victory in the series came in 1981, a 31-21 win on the road. The teams' first meeting came in 1966 at Zable Stadium and ended in a 7-7 tie.

CHALLENGING SLATE

Playing its first 12-game regular season slate since 2014, W&M's schedule this fall features a number of challenging matchups. In addition to playing two FBS opponents (Virginia/ECU), W&M will square off against five teams nationally ranked in the preseason polls (James Madison, Maine, Towson, Elon, Colgate). This season marks the first time since 1991 that W&M's schedule will include two FBS opponents.

LIMITING PENALTIES

W&M has ranked among the country's top 10 least penalized teams eight straight years.

The chart below indicates those national rankings during the last seven seasons.

National Ranking (FCS)

2018	7th (4.6)	8th (38.6)
2017	3rd (3.8)	3rd (34.9)

ONE TRIBE, ONE FAMILY

The W&M athletic department's unofficial slogan - "One Tribe, One Family" - is especially true for the Tribe football team, as the roster features a pair of brother tandems - Collin/Corey Parker and Andrew/Sam Trainer. Additionally, head coach Mike London's son, Mike London Jr. is the Tribe's wide receivers coach.

SENIOR LEADERSHIP

Leading the Tribe's 19-member senior class is a quartet of talented seniors - Nate Atkins (senior, LB), Bill Murray (senior, DT), Corey Parker (senior, DB) and Mark Williamson (senior, OL). Atkins enters his second season as a captain, becoming just the 12th player in the program's 126-year history to be selected as a team captain twice. In addition to their leadership, all four players have excelled on the field and earned all-conference honors at least once during their careers.

TRIBE IN THE NFL

Four former Tribe standouts were in NFL training camps this summer - DeAndre Houston-Carson (Bears), Tre McBride (Jaguars), Luke Rhodes (Colts) and B.W. Webb (Bengals).

Additionally, a pair of former Tribe players are currently serving as NFL head coaches - Mike Tomlin

'95 (Pittsburgh Steelers, head coach) and Sean McDermott '98 (Buffalo Bills). Atlanta Falcons head coach Dan Quinn also has W&M ties, as he was an assistant on the Tribe's staff in 1994.

Also noteworthy is a pair of former W&M head coaches who went on to have extraordinary careers - Marv Levy and Lou Holtz. Levy served as W&M's head coach from 1964-68 and was followed by Holtz from 1969-71.

TRIBE IN THE NFL

When All-American defensive back DeAndre Houston Carson was selected by the Chicago Bears in the sixth round of the 2016 NFL Draft, he became the sixth Tribe player drafted since 2009.

Below are a few notes about W&M's six NFL Draft picks since 2009.

- Leads the CAA and ranks second in the FCS, behind only Montana (7)
- Ranks third in the state of Virginia (behind only Virginia Tech and Virginia)
- Is more than ACC member Duke (5)

Tremendously successful and widely respected, Mike London enters his first season as head coach of the William & Mary football program.

London, a former assistant under longtime Tribe head coach Jimmye Laycock, returns to Williamsburg with an impressive list of accomplishments as a head coach that includes winning a national title at the University of Richmond (2008) and earning Atlantic Coast Conference Coach of the Year distinction at the University of Virginia (2011).

"This is an exciting day for William & Mary, and we are thrilled to welcome Mike and his family back to Williamsburg," W&M Director of Athletics Samantha K. Huge said at the time of London hiring in November. "Mike embodies the values and character that we need to lead our football program forward and he has demonstrated an ability to develop players and win championships over his nearly 30 years in coaching. His unique journey and commitment to the development of young men make him the perfect successor to carry on Coach Jimmye Laycock's 39-year legacy while forging a new path for Tribe Football."

Howard University's head coach the last two seasons, London's tenure leading the Bison was highlighted with his selection as a finalist for the 2017 STATS Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) Eddie Robinson Award, which is bestowed upon the nation's top head coach. Additionally, he earned the 2017 American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Regional Coach of the Year award after guiding Howard to a 6-2 conference record – the program's first winning season since 2012. His inaugural campaign at HU featured a season-opening win at UNLV, which ESPN lauded as one of college football's greatest upsets.

Prior to his two-year stint at HU, London served as an associate head coach/defensive line coach at the University of Maryland in 2016 where he helped lead the Terps to an appearance in the Quick Lane Bowl.

In addition to garnering ACC Coach of the Year honors at UVA in 2011, London led the Cavaliers to the Chick-Fil-A Bowl. En route to earning the postseason bowl bid, he guided UVA to road wins at Miami and Florida State – becoming the first program in the nation to accomplish the feat in the same season.

London gained his first head coaching experience at Richmond, his alma mater, where he amassed a 24-5 record and guided the Spiders to the 2008 FCS national title during his initial campaign. His efforts were recognized by the AFCA, which selected him as the FCS National Coach of the Year. After leading the Spiders to an 8-0 start the following season, UR became just the third FCS school to receive a vote in the Associated Press (AP) Poll.

London landed the head coaching job at UR after an exceptional two-year stint as UVA's defensive coordinator (2006-07). During his first season, the Cavaliers allowed just 289.5 yards per game – the program's best figure in 27 years. The following season, London's defense ranked sixth nationally in sacks and among the nation's top 20 in scoring defense and rushing defense. London oversaw the development of an outstanding group of All-ACC honorees, highlighted by 2007 unanimous All-America standout Chris Long, who was the second overall pick in the 2008 NFL Draft.

Before returning to UVA, where he was an assistant from 2001-04, London spent the 2005 season in the NFL as the Houston Texans' defensive line coach. London's first stint with the Cavaliers also included serving as the program's recruiting coordinator from 2002-04.

London, a native of Hampton, Va., began his coaching career as the outside linebackers coach at Richmond in 1988 before coaching the defensive line at William & Mary under Jimmye Laycock (1991-94). He then returned to UR for two more years (1995-96) as the outside linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator before taking on the defensive line coaching duties at Boston College from 1997-00.

A standout defensive back at Richmond (1979-82), London served as a team captain his senior season and was signed by the Dallas Cowboys as a free agent in 1983.

London graduated from UR in 1983 with a bachelor's degree in sociology and a year later earned a degree in law enforcement from the Richmond Police Academy. He served as a detective from 1985-87.

London and his wife, Regina, have four children: daughters Ticynn, Jaicyn and Madicyn and son Korben. He has three children from a previous marriage: sons Michael Jr. and Brandon, and daughter Kristen.
