INSIDE THE TRIBE

THE GAME

After last year's contest in Williamsburg was canceled due to Hurricane Florence, William & Mary and Elon will resume their conference series for the Phoenix's Homecoming game this Saturday at 2 p.m. A video stream of the CAA matchup will be available at FloFootball.com.

ABOUT THE TRIBE

The Tribe will look to snap a five-game skid when it travels to Elon this weekend, as it currently owns a 2-6 overall record and a 0-4 mark in conference play. Nearly all of the setbacks have been tightly contested matchups, however, as three of the four conference losses have not been decided until late in the fourth quarter. Freshman quarterback Hollis Mathis rushed for three touchdowns in last week's game at Maine – the most by a Tribe player since 2016 – and currently ranks tied for fourth in the CAA with six rushing scores. Defensively, defensive end Will Kiely posted a career-high 4.0 TFL versus the Black Bears and now ranks among the league's top 10 with 9.0 TFL this season.

SCOUTING THE PHOENIX

After recently snapping a three-game losing streak with a pair of CAA victories against Delaware and Rhode Island, Elon enters Saturday's Homecoming game with a 4-4 record overall and a 3-2 mark in CAA action. Although the Phoenix are averaging just 318.9 total yards per game, it ranks tied for second in the CAA with a +7 turnover margin and leads the conference in red zone conversions (19 of 20 with 17 TD).

ABOUT THE SERIES

Saturday's game will mark just the fifth meeting between W&M and Elon. W&M claimed the first two matchups before suffering setbacks during the last two matchups.

Three of the four games have been lopsided affairs, as the most recent matchup in 2017, a 25-17 Elon win, is the lone contest decided by a single-digit margin.

Last season's contest, scheduled to be played in Williamsburg, was canceled due to Hurricane Florence.

■ W&M/ELON NOTES

LAST MEETING

W&M early rallied back from a 20-point second half deficit but fell at No. 18/23 Elon, 25-17, on Oct. 7, 2017.

Although W&M trailed 23-3 at halftime, it outscored the Phoenix 14-0 during the third quarter to draw within six points as the teams entered the final stanza.

However, the Tribe's final scoring threat ended late in the fourth quarter when its offense stalled at Elon's 13-yard line and was forced to attempt a field goal, which missed wide left with 4:26 remaining.

The Tribe's next possession ended with a safety, while its final drive concluded near midfield when the clock expired on a sack.

IMPORTANCE OF A GOOD START

In W&M's two victories against Elon, it outscored the Phoenix, 44-0, in the first half.

However, in its losses to the Phoenix, Elon outscored the Tribe, 40-6, in the opening 30 minutes.

WINNING THE TURNOVER BATTLE IS KEY

In the Tribe's two wins against Elon, it owned a +6 turnover margin and did not commit any turnovers.

Conversely, W&M has thrown four interceptions in its losses and has a -3 turnover margin in those setbacks.

■ TEAM NOTES

RECOVERING ONSIDE KICKS

W&M has recovered a pair of its onside kick attempts this season, both coming off the foot of Kris Hooper. Alex Purviance recovered the first at UAlbany, while Kevin Jarrell scooped up the loose ball at Maine.

VERSATILITY

The Tribe has utilized the versatility of multiple players this year, as Bronson Yoder and Tyler Crist have played on both sides of the ball, as well as on special teams. Yoder, one of the nation's top kickoff returners, has also played safety, wide receiver and in the wildcat position, while Crist has played running back and linebacker.

WINNING THE TURNOVER BATTLE

During the last two seasons, W&M is 5-1 when it commits fewer turnovers than its opponents, while it is 0-9 when it loses the turnover battle during the recent stretch.

20 IS THE MAGIC NUMBER

W&M owns a 7-3 record during the last three seasons in games in which it scored more than 20 points. The losses have come in three of the last four games (UAlbany, Villanova, Maine).

LEADING AT HALFTIME

Dating back to the 2014 season, the Tribe has won 16 of its last 20 games when leading at halftime.

Three of those setbacks came against Towson (2016, 2017, 2018), while the other was at UAlbany (2019).

HOLDING ON TO LEADS

Dating back to the start of the 2013 season, W&M owns a 31-4 record when leading after three quarters.

The three losses came against UAlbany, 2019; Delaware, 2015; JMU, 2014; Villanova, 2013.

TRUE FRESHMAN

Nine true freshman have played for the Tribe this season: punter George Eberle, wide receiver Kane Everson, offensive lineman Bart Francois, long snapper Sam Katz, running back Donavyn Lester, defensive lineman Nate Lynn, quarterback Hollis Mathis, cornerback Latrelle Smith and safety Bronson Yoder.

SUCCESS vs. FCS IN NON-CONFERENCE

With the wins against Lafayette and Colgate, W&M has won 35 of its last 37 games against non-conference FCS opponent during the regular season. The lone losses during that span are Lafayette (2012) and Colgate (2018).

Additionally it owns a 38-3 record vs. FCS non-conference teams during the regular season dating back through the 2002 season.

NEW ERA BEGINS

A new era of Tribe football is underway as first-year head coach Mike London leads W&M in 2019. A former assistant under longtime Tribe head coach Jimmie Laycock, London returns to Williamsburg with an impressive list of accomplishments as a head coach that includes winning a national title at the University of Richmond (2008) and earning Atlantic Coast Conference Coach of the Year distinction at the University of Virginia (2011). Additionally, he was honored as the 2008 AFCA FCS National Coach of the Year.

CHALLENGING SLATE

Playing its first 12-game regular season slate since 2014, W&M's schedule this fall features a number of challenging matchups. In addition to playing two FBS opponents (Virginia/ECU), W&M squares off against five teams nationally ranked in the preseason polls (James Madison, Maine, Towson, Elon, Colgate). This season marks the first time since 1991 that W&M's schedule will include two FBS opponents.

ONE TRIBE

SENIOR LEADERSHIP

Leading the Tribe's 19-member senior class is a quartet of talented seniors - Nate Atkins (senior, LB), Bill Murray (senior, DT), Corey Parker (senior, DB) and Mark Williamson (senior, OL). Atkins enters his second season as a captain, becoming just the 12th player in the program's 126-year history to be selected as a team captain twice. In addition to their leadership, all four players have excelled on the

TRIBE IN THE NFL

When All-American defensive back DeAndre Houston Carson was selected by the Chicago Bears in the sixth round of the 2016 NFL Draft, he became the sixth Tribe player drafted since 2009.

Tremendously successful and widely respected, Mike London enters his first season as head coach of the William & Mary football program.

London, a former assistant under longtime Tribe head coach Jimmye Laycock, returns to Williamsburg with an impressive list of accomplishments as a head coach that includes winning a national title at the University of Richmond (2008) and earning Atlantic Coast Conference Coach of the Year distinction at the University of Virginia (2011).

"This is an exciting day for William & Mary, and we are thrilled to welcome Mike and his family back to Williamsburg," W&M Director of Athletics Samantha K. Huge said at the time of London hiring in November. "Mike embodies the values and character that we need to lead our football program forward and he has demonstrated an ability to develop players and win championships over his nearly 30 years in coaching. His unique journey and commitment to the development of young men make him the perfect successor to carry on Coach Jimmye Laycock's 39-year legacy while forging a new path for Tribe Football."

Howard University's head coach the last two seasons, London's tenure leading the Bison was highlighted with his selection as a finalist for the 2017 STATS Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) Eddie Robinson Award, which is bestowed upon the nation's top head coach. Additionally, he earned the 2017 American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Regional Coach of the Year award after guiding Howard to a 6-2 conference record – the program's first winning season since 2012. His inaugural campaign at HU featured a season-opening win at UNLV, which ESPN lauded as one of college football's greatest upsets.

Prior to his two-year stint at HU, London served as an associate head coach/defensive line coach at the University of Maryland in 2016 where he helped lead the Terps to an appearance in the Quick Lane Bowl.

In addition to garnering ACC Coach of the Year honors at UVA in 2011, London led the Cavaliers to the Chick-Fil-A Bowl. En route to earning the postseason bowl bid, he guided UVA to road wins at Miami and Florida State – becoming the first program in the nation to accomplish the feat in the same season.

London gained his first head coaching experience at Richmond, his alma mater, where he amassed a 24-5 record and guided the Spiders to the 2008 FCS national title during his initial campaign. His efforts were recognized by the AFCA, which selected him as the FCS National Coach of the Year. After leading the Spiders to an 8-0 start the following season, UR became just the third FCS school to receive a vote in the Associated Press (AP) Poll.

London landed the head coaching job at UR after an exceptional two-year stint as UVA's defensive coordinator (2006-07). During his first season, the Cavaliers allowed just 289.5 yards per game – the program's best figure in 27 years. The following season, London's defense ranked sixth nationally in sacks and among the nation's top 20 in scoring defense and rushing defense. London oversaw the development of an outstanding group of All-ACC honorees, highlighted by 2007 unanimous All-America standout Chris Long, who was the second overall pick in the 2008 NFL Draft.

Before returning to UVA, where he was an assistant from 2001-04, London spent the 2005 season in the NFL as the Houston Texans' defensive line coach. London's first stint with the Cavaliers also included serving as the program's recruiting coordinator from 2002-04.

London, a native of Hampton, Va., began his coaching career as the outside linebackers coach at Richmond in 1988 before coaching the defensive line at William & Mary under Jimmye Laycock (1991-94). He then returned to UR for two more years (1995-96) as the outside linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator before taking on the defensive line coaching duties at Boston College from 1997-00.

A standout defensive back at Richmond (1979-82), London served as a team captain his senior season and was signed by the Dallas Cowboys as a free agent in 1983.

London graduated from UR in 1983 with a bachelor's degree in sociology and a year later earned a degree in law enforcement from the Richmond Police Academy. He served as a detective from 1985-87.

London and his wife, Regina, have four children: daughters Ticynn, Jaicyn and Madicyn and son Korben. He has three children from a previous marriage: sons Michael Jr. and Brandon, and daughter Kristen.
