INSIDE THE TRIBE

THE GAME

Having won six of its last seven games, including 31-18 victory at then-No. 4 Villanova last weekend, the No. 20/23 Tribe will conclude its regular-season road slate at Delaware on Saturday at 1 p.m. The contest will mark the Tribe's third road game in its last four outings. The game will be streamed on FloFootball.com.

ABOUT THE TRIBE

William & Mary enters Saturday's game with a 6-2 record overall and a 4-1 mark in conference play. The Tribe jumped into the national rankings this week for the first time since 2016 (No. 20 Stats Perform Poll / No. 23 AFCA Coaches Poll) following its lopsided win at then-No. 4 Villanova. W&M currently leads the Colonial Athletic Association and ranks 13th nationally with 216.9 rushing yards per game. Additionally, the Tribe leads the conference with 16 rushing touchdowns and is averaging 5.2 yards per carry. Defensively, W&M has totaled 19 takeaways this season - 13 interceptions and six fumble recoveries - which ranks tied for fifth nationally. W&M's 13 interceptions ranks tied for third nationally, while it has recorded eight in the last two contests - all by different players.

SCOUTING THE BLUE HENS

Ranked as high as No. 6 earlier this season, Delaware enters the weekend with a 4-4 record overall and a 2-3 mark in conference play after losing three of its last four contests. Although the Blue Hens rank among the top teams in the conference defensively and are allowing just 345.4 total yards per game, their offense has struggled to find the end zone and are averaging just 19.1 points per game.

ABOUT THE SERIES

Saturday's contest will mark the 43rd meeting between W&M and Delaware, as the Blue Hens hold a 24-18 advantage. UD owns a 14-6 advantage in games played in Newark.

■ W&M/DELAWARE NOTES

LAST MEETING

W&M limited Delaware to just 195 total yards and 10 first downs but fell on the road, 17-0, on Oct. 14, 2017.

Delaware's three scoring drives combined to cover just 52 yards, as it recorded 10 of its 17 points off turnovers.

The final score marked W&M's first shutout since falling at UD, 21-0, in 2011.

RECIPE FOR SUCCESS

A key to the Tribe's last six victories against Delaware has been its defense. In addition to allowing just 13.8 points per game versus UD in those wins, W&M has surrendered just 84.2 rushing yards per game (a total 505 rushing yards). Additionally, W&M held UD to negative rushing totals in two of those contests - 2009 (-2); 2013 (-35).

In those six wins, the Tribe has also totaled 24 sacks for an average of 4.0 per contest.

OVERTIME

W&M has played more overtime games against Delaware (three) than any other opponent and owns a 2-1 record in those contests.

PERENNIAL POWERS

Saturday's contest will mark the 27th time W&M and UD have met as conference foes, while it will be the 22nd occasion in which at least one of the teams owned a national ranking.

In the previous 21 matchups, both teams were ranked 13 times while one squad was ranked on eight occasions.

■ TEAM NOTES

BACK IN THE NATIONAL RANKINGS

After winning six of its last seven games, highlighted by a 31-18 victory at then-No. 4 Villanova in its last outing, the William & Mary football team earned national rankings in both major polls this week. W&M is ranked tied for 20th in the Stats Perform Poll and 23rd in the AFCA Coaches Poll.

The rankings mark the first time since 2016 that W&M has garnered a spot in the top 25.

STRONG START

W&M's 6-2 record marks the program's best start since 2015 when it opened the year with an 8-2 mark.

Additionally, the Tribe's 4-1 start in conference play is the program's best record in league action since opening with a 6-1 mark the same season.

TURNOVER MARGIN

With a +8 turnover margin, W&M currently ranks tied for fifth nationally.

WINNING THE TURNOVER BATTLE

During the last four seasons, W&M is 12-2 when it commits fewer turnovers than its opponents, while it is 2-10 when it loses the turnover battle during the recent stretch. The only wins came against Elon last spring and this fall.

20 IS THE MAGIC NUMBER

W&M owns an 17-3 record during the last four seasons in games in which it scored more than 20 points.

It owns a perfect 6-0 mark in those games this season.

GETTING AHEAD

W&M is 4-0 when scoring first this season. Additionally, the Tribe is undefeated when leading at halftime.

LEADING AT HALFTIME

Dating back to the 2014 season, the Tribe has won 23 of its last 27 games when leading at halftime.

Three of those setbacks came against Towson (2016, 2017, 2018), while the other was at UAlbany (2019).

HOLDING ON TO LEADS

Dating back to the start of the 2013 season, W&M owns a 39-4 record when leading after three quarters.

The three losses came against UAlbany, 2019; Delaware, 2015; JMU, 2014; Villanova, 2013.

COMEBACK WINS

W&M's impressive comeback win against UAlbany earlier this season marked the 23rd time the Tribe has rallied back from a double-digit second half deficit dating back through 1970.

A complete list of those wins is below.

slate with a victory (the Tribe's combined winning percentage for those 10 seasons is .702, 87-37). Additionally, W&M has never failed to win less than seven games during a season in which it started conference play with a victory. Six of the program's seven NCAA playoff appearances since 1993 have come in seasons that have started with a victory in conference play.

Conversely, in the 17 seasons W&M has lost its conference opener it has averaged 5.2 wins for a .468 winning percentage (89-101). The 2010 season marked the only time during the 28-year stretch that W&M had lost its conference opener and won more than seven games.

GRADUATES

More than 20 percent of W&M's roster is comprised of student-athletes who have already earned their undergraduate degrees (19 total players).

Highlighting the impressive group is second-year Law student Carl Fowler, who serves as a Colonial Athletic Association (CAA) representative on the NCAA Football Student-Athlete Connection Group.

CAPTAINS

Serving as team captains this season are five seniors - defensive tackle Zyquan Bessant, wide receiver Zach Burdick, linebacker Tyler Crist, defensive end Carl Fowler and offensive lineman Ryan Ripley.

Crist, Fowler and Ripley served as captains last season.

Of the five, only Fowler was recruited as a scholarship player.

TRIBE IN THE NFL

Three former Tribe standouts are on NFL rosters this season - DeAndre Houston-Carson (Bears), Luke Rhodes (Colts) and Bill Murray (Patriots).

Additionally, a pair of former Tribe players are currently serving as NFL head coaches - Mike Tomlin '95 (Pittsburgh Steelers, head coach) and Sean McDermott '98 (Buffalo Bills), while Joe Brady '13 is currently the Carolina Panthers offensive coordinator.

Also noteworthy is a pair of former W&M head coaches who went on to have extraordinary Hall of Fame careers - Marv Levy and Lou Holtz. Levy served as W&M's head coach from 1964-68 and was followed by Holtz from 1969-71.

■ TEAM OFFENSIVE NOTES

BEST RUSHING ATTACK IN THE CAA

W&M currently leads the CAA and ranks 13th nationally with 216.9 rushing yards per game.

The Tribe's rushing attack has been especially effective in the last six games, as it has averaged 257.3 yards per game on the ground during the recent stretch.

W&M's current average of 5.2 yards per carry would set a school record, as the current mark of 5.1 was set in 1990.

The Tribe also leads the CAA with 16 rushing touchdowns. W&M has totaled eight rushing touchdowns during the last two games (four each game).

BALANCED ATTACK

W&M currently has three players who are averaging more than 50 rushing yards per game - Donavyn Lester (64.9), Bronson Yoder (62.3) and Malachi Imoh (59.7). A fourth player - quarterback Darius Wilson - is nearly part of the group as well with 47.1 rushing yards per game.

TRENDING UPWARDS

After being shutout at Virginia in its season opener, W&M is averaging 29.0 points per game in its last seven contests.

During that stretch, the Tribe has failed to score at least 20 points just once (at Maine).

FLIPPING THE SCRIPT

After averaging just 178.0 yards of total offense in the first two games, W&M is averaging 411.7 yards of total offense in the last six contests.

PROTECTING THE QB

In addition to allowing just four sacks in the last seven games, W&M ranks tied for fifth nationally with just six sacks surrendered this season.

OFFENSIVE LINE ADJUSTMENTS

Expected to be one of W&M's strengths this season, the offensive line featured a talented group that entered the fall with a combined 78 career starts. However, due to injuries and illness, W&M utilized different starting lineups along the offensive front in each of the first seven games this season.

FOURTH DOWN CONVERSIONS

The Tribe has converted on seven of its nine fourth down attempts this season and ranks tied for sixth nationally with a 77.8 conversion percentage.

GROUND GAME PRODUCTION IS KEY

Tremendously successful and widely respected, Mike London enters his third year as head coach of the William & Mary football program.

Although the COVID-19 global pandemic limited last season's campaign to a three-game slate during the spring, London successfully guided the program through the challenges. A pair of standouts – left tackle Andrew Trainer and defensive end Will Kiely – both earned all-conference honors, while standout freshman running back Malachi Imoh garnered all-state distinction.

The team also continued its tradition of academic excellence, as a program-record 69 players earned CAA Commissioner's Academic Honor Roll Accolades during the fall semester.

London's first season leading the Tribe provided a glimpse of the program's bright future, as the squad concluded the 2019 campaign with wins in three of its final four games – including a Capital Cup victory at long-time rival Richmond in the season finale. In addition to helping five W&M standouts earn all-conference honors, defensive tackle Bill Murray garnered All-America distinction and signed a free agent contract with the New England Patriots. Additionally, four members of the squad earned Freshman All-America honors.

Under London's leadership, the Tribe also dramatically improved in a number of offensive statistical categories during his first season in Williamsburg. In addition to nearly doubling its scoring production from the previous year (25.2), W&M increased its total offense by nearly 100 yards per game. The Tribe also increased its rushing average by more than 130 yards per contest and more than quadrupled its rushing touchdown total (26) – an impressive figure that ranked just outside the program's all-time top-10 list.

The Tribe also excelled academically under London's leadership, as a then-program-record 51 student-athletes earned CAA Commissioner's Academic Honor Roll distinction during the spring semester.

London, a former assistant under longtime Tribe head coach Jimmie Laycock, returned to Williamsburg with an impressive list of accomplishments as a head coach that includes winning a national title at the University of Richmond (2008) and earning Atlantic Coast Conference Coach of the Year distinction at the University of Virginia (2011).

Howard University's head coach from 2017-18, London's tenure leading the Bison was highlighted with his selection as a finalist for the 2017 STATS Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) Eddie Robinson Award, which is bestowed upon the nation's top head coach. Additionally, he earned the 2017 American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Regional Coach of the Year award after guiding Howard to a 6-2 conference record – the program's first winning season since 2012. His inaugural campaign at HU featured a season-opening win at UNLV, which ESPN lauded as one of college football's greatest upsets.

Prior to his two-year stint at HU, London served as an associate head coach/defensive line coach at the University of Maryland in 2016 where he helped lead the Terps to an appearance in the Quick Lane Bowl.

In addition to garnering ACC Coach of the Year honors at UVA in 2011, London led the Cavaliers to the Chick-Fil-A Bowl. En route to earning the postseason bowl bid, he guided UVA to road wins at Miami and Florida State – becoming the first program in the nation to accomplish the feat in the same season.

London gained his first head coaching experience at Richmond, his alma mater, where he amassed a 24-5 record and guided the Spiders to the 2008 FCS national title during his initial campaign. His efforts were recognized by the AFCA, which selected him as the FCS National Coach of the Year. After leading the Spiders to an 8-0 start the following season, UR became just the third FCS school to receive a vote in the Associated Press (AP) Poll.

London landed the head coaching job at UR after an exceptional two-year stint as UVA's defensive coordinator (2006-07). During his first season, the Cavaliers allowed just 289.5 yards per game – the program's best figure in 27 years. The following season, London's defense ranked sixth nationally in sacks and among the nation's top 20 in scoring defense and rushing defense. London oversaw the development of an outstanding group of All-ACC honorees, highlighted by 2007 unanimous All-America standout Chris Long, who was the second overall pick in the 2008 NFL Draft.

Before returning to UVA, where he was an assistant from 2001-04, London spent the 2005 season in the NFL as the Houston Texans' defensive line coach. London's first stint with the Cavaliers also included serving as the program's recruiting coordinator from 2002-04.

London, a native of Hampton, Va., began his coaching career as the outside linebackers coach at Richmond in 1988 before coaching the defensive line at William & Mary under Jimmie Laycock (1991-94). He then returned to UR for two more years (1995-96) as the outside linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator before taking on the defensive line coaching duties at Boston College from 1997-00.

A standout defensive back at Richmond (1979-82), London served as a team captain his senior season and was signed by the Dallas Cowboys as a free agent in 1983.

London graduated from UR in 1983 with a bachelor's degree in sociology and a year later earned a degree in law enforcement from the Richmond Police Academy. He served as a detective from 1985-87.

London and his wife, Regina, have four children: daughters Ticynn, Jaicyn and Madicyn and son Korben. He has three children from a previous marriage: sons Michael Jr. and Brandon, and daughter Kristen.
