■ TEAM NOTES

NATIONAL RANKING

Despite suffering a 35-31 setback to Elon in its conference opener last weekend, W&M continues to be ranked in both major national polls. W&M is No. 18 in the Stats Perform FCS Top 25 Poll and No. 21 in the AFCA FCS Coaches' Top 25 Poll.

STRONG START

W&M's 3-1 start marks the second consecutive season in which it has won three of its first four games.

WIDE MARGINS

In W&M's three victories this season, it has won by an average margin of 20.0 points per game.

WINNING THE TURNOVER BATTLE

During the last five seasons, W&M is 14-3 when it commits fewer turnovers than its opponents, while it is 2-13 when it loses the turnover battle during the recent stretch.

20 IS THE MAGIC NUMBER

W&M owns a 20-5 record during the last five seasons in games in which it scored more than 20 points.

It owned a 6-1 mark in those games last season and is 3-1 this year.

HOLDING ON TO LEADS

COACH LONDON vs. THE FBS

W&M's season-opening win at Charlotte marked the third time head coach Mike London has led an FCS team to a victory against a FBS squad - Richmond def. Duke (2009); Howard def. UNLV (2017).

London owns a 3-7 all-time record versus FBS teams as an FCS head coach.

SUCCESS vs. FCS IN NON-CONFERENCE

With wins against Campbell and Lafayette, W&M has won 39 of its last 41 games against non-conference FCS opponent during the regular season. The lone losses during that span are Lafayette (2012) and Colgate (2018).

Additionally it owns a 42-3 record vs. FCS non-conference teams during the regular season dating back through the 2002 season.

CAPTAINS

Serving as team captains this season are five seniors - defensive tackle Zyquan Bessant, defensive end Carl Fowler, tight end Lachlan Pitts, offensive lineman Colby Sorsdal and linebacker Trey Watkins.

Fowler is the only player in W&M's history (129 seasons) to be selected as a team captain three times, while Bessant enters his second season as a captain.

GRADUATES

Sixteen W&M football student-athletes have already earned their undergraduate degrees - Carl Fowler, Zyquan Bessant, Trey Watkins, Colby Sorsdal, Marcus Crowell, Kevin Jarrell, Hunter Klein, Lachlan Pitts, Ryan Poole, Malcolm Spencer, Will Whitehurst, Cam Spangler, Tye Freeland, Caylin Newton, Justin Johnson and Tyler Oedekoven.

TRIBE IN THE NFL

Additionally, a pair of former Tribe players are currently serving as NFL head coaches - Mike Tomlin '95 (Pittsburgh Steelers, head coach) and Sean McDermott '98 (Buffalo Bills), while Alan Williams '92 is currently the Chicago Bears' defensive coordinator.

Also noteworthy is a pair of former W&M head coaches who went on to have extraordinary Hall of Fame careers - Marv Levy and Lou Holtz. Levy served as W&M's head coach from 1964-68 and was followed by Holtz from 1969-71.

HEAD COACH

Tremendously successful and widely respected, Mike London enters his fourth year as head coach of the William & Mary football program.

Under London's leadership, W&M continued its upward trajectory during the 2021 campaign as it posted the program's most wins since 2015 and garnered a national ranking in multiple weeks. Highlighting the notable victories was a 31-18 road win at No. 4 Villanova. W&M finished the year with the CAA's most productive rushing offense and the nation's 12th-ranked rushing defense.

Individually, seven Tribe standouts earned postseason all-conference honors, highlighted by a pair of All-America standouts in defensive end Nate Lynn, a Buck Buchanan Award Finalist for national defensive player of the year, and left tackle Andrew Trainer, who signed a free agent contract with the Los Angeles Chargers. Additionally, quarterback Darius Wilson was selected as the CAA Offensive Rookie of the Year.

In addition to the success on the field, London's squad distinguished itself in the classroom as 33 players were recognized on the CAA Football Commissioner's Academic Honor Roll for the fall semester.

Although the COVID-19 global pandemic limited London's second season with the Tribe to a three-game slate during the spring, he successfully guided the program through the challenges. A pair of standouts – left tackle Andrew Trainer and defensive end Will Kiely – both earned all-conference honors, while standout freshman running back Malachi Imoh garnered all-state distinction.

The team also continued its tradition of academic excellence, as a program-record 69 players earned CAA Commissioner's Academic Honor Roll Accolades during the fall semester.

London's first season leading the Tribe provided a glimpse of the program's bright future, as the squad concluded the 2019 campaign with wins in three of its final four games – including a Capital Cup victory at long-time rival Richmond in the season finale. In addition to helping five W&M standouts earn all-conference honors, defensive tackle Bill Murray garnered All-America distinction and signed a free agent contract with the New England Patriots. Additionally, four members of the squad earned Freshman All-America honors.

Under London's leadership, the Tribe also dramatically improved in a number of offensive statistical categories during his first season in Williamsburg. In addition to nearly doubling its scoring production from the previous year (25.2), W&M increased its total offense by nearly 100 yards per game. The Tribe also increased its rushing average by more than 130 yards per contest and more than quadrupled its rushing touchdown total (26) – an impressive figure that ranked just outside the program's all-time top-10 list.

The Tribe also excelled academically under London's leadership, as a then-program-record 51 student-athletes earned CAA Commissioner's Academic Honor Roll distinction during the spring semester.

London, a former assistant under longtime Tribe head coach Jimmie Laycock, returned to Williamsburg with an impressive list of accomplishments as a head coach that includes winning a national title at the University of Richmond (2008) and earning Atlantic Coast Conference Coach of the Year distinction at the University of Virginia (2011).

Howard University's head coach from 2017-18, London's tenure leading the Bison was highlighted with his selection as a finalist for the 2017 STATS Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) Eddie Robinson Award, which is bestowed upon the nation's top head coach. Additionally, he earned the 2017 American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Regional Coach of the Year award after guiding Howard to a 6-2 conference record – the program's first winning season since 2012. His inaugural campaign at HU featured a season-opening win at UNLV, which ESPN lauded as one of college football's greatest upsets.

Prior to his two-year stint at HU, London served as an associate head coach/defensive line coach at the University of Maryland in 2016 where he helped lead the Terps to an appearance in the Quick Lane Bowl.

In addition to garnering ACC Coach of the Year honors at UVA in 2011, London led the Cavaliers to the Chick-Fil-A Bowl. En route to earning the postseason bowl bid, he guided UVA to road wins at Miami and Florida State – becoming the first program in the nation to accomplish the feat in the same season.

London gained his first head coaching experience at Richmond, his alma mater, where he amassed a 24-5 record and guided the Spiders to the 2008 FCS national title during his initial campaign. His efforts were recognized by the AFCA, which selected him as the FCS National Coach of the Year. After leading the Spiders to an 8-0 start the following season, UR became just the third FCS school to receive a vote in the Associated Press (AP) Poll.

London landed the head coaching job at UR after an exceptional two-year stint as UVA's defensive coordinator (2006-07). During his first season, the Cavaliers allowed just 289.5 yards per game – the program's best figure in 27 years. The following season, London's defense ranked sixth nationally in sacks and among the nation's top 20 in scoring defense and rushing defense. London oversaw the development of an outstanding group of All-ACC honorees, highlighted by 2007 unanimous All-America standout Chris Long, who was the second overall pick in the 2008 NFL Draft.

Before returning to UVA, where he was an assistant from 2001-04, London spent the 2005 season in the NFL as the Houston Texans' defensive line coach. London's first stint with the Cavaliers also included serving as the program's recruiting coordinator from 2002-04.

London, a native of Hampton, Va., began his coaching career as the outside linebackers coach at Richmond in 1988 before coaching the defensive line at William & Mary under Jimmie Laycock (1991-94). He then returned to UR for two more years (1995-96) as the outside linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator before taking on the defensive line coaching duties at Boston College from 1997-00.

A standout defensive back at Richmond (1979-82), London served as a team captain his senior season and was signed by the Dallas Cowboys as a free agent in 1983.
